Luxury reimagined on a beautiful Island in the Okavango Delta

Jao Camp is nestled on a remote island in the heart of the Okavango Delta, offering an exclusive and immersive safari experience. The camp features two spacious villas and five luxurious suites, thoughtfully designed to blend seamlessly with the surrounding landscape. Each open-plan suite includes a lounge, dressing area, main bedroom, en-suite facilities, a heating and air-cooling system as well as kitchenette and dining area. A private plunge pool provides the perfect retreat from the afternoon heat, offering awe-inspiring views of the nearby channel.

The main area boasts a striking modern design, complete with both indoor and outdoor fireplaces, lounge and dining areas. Guests can also explore the gallery, which houses a library, a curio shop, and a wine cellar featuring an impressive selection of South African wines. For relaxation, Jao Camp offers two spa rooms with a range of rejuvenating treatments, as well as a swimming pool and a fully equipped gym.

ABOUT JAO

With a landscape that transitions from winding waterways and serene lagoons to the dry grasslands of the Kalahari, Jao provides both land and water-based safari experiences, depending on the seasonal flood levels. Activities include seasonal mokoro excursions and boating, seasonal fishing, and day and night game drives, all set within one of the most picturesque concessions in the Delta.

Guests arrive at Jao via the conveniently located Jao Airstrip, which provides direct access to the area. From there, it's just a short and scenic 10-minute vehicle transfer to camp, offering the perfect introduction to the surrounding wilderness.

AN EXTRAORDINARY WEB OF LIFE

Start your day with breakfast by a hippo-filled lagoon at dawn, or brunch by a shallow lagoon surrounded by grazing red lechwe. As the sun sets, dine among a herd of zebras beneath a sky ablaze with stars. Let every moment awaken your senses.

Where land and water merge in the heart of the Okavango, Jao Camp stands as a haven of elegance and sophistication. Nestled on its own secluded island, with the renowned Moremi Game Reserve to the east, it offers one of the most immersive and enriching experiences in the Delta.

A DREAMY ESCAPE ON ITS OWN PRIVATE ISLAND

EVERCHANGING FLOODPLAINS OF THE JAO RESERVE

Experience the drama of the floodplains on a game drive, uncover hidden wonders on a guided nature walk, or navigate the waterways by delta boat or traditional mokoro, gliding silently through the reeds. For a truly spectacular perspective, take to the skies in a helicopter and witness the vast, intricate beauty of the Okavango from above.

A HAVEN OF ELEGANCE AND SOPHISTICATION

This architectural masterpiece seamlessly blends natural and recycled materials - steel, wood, and glass - creating a striking yet harmonious retreat. Towering, open interiors invite light and the surrounding wilderness inside, offering magnificent views of the expansive floodplains from nearly every angle. The sheer serenity of this setting is sure to leave you in awe.

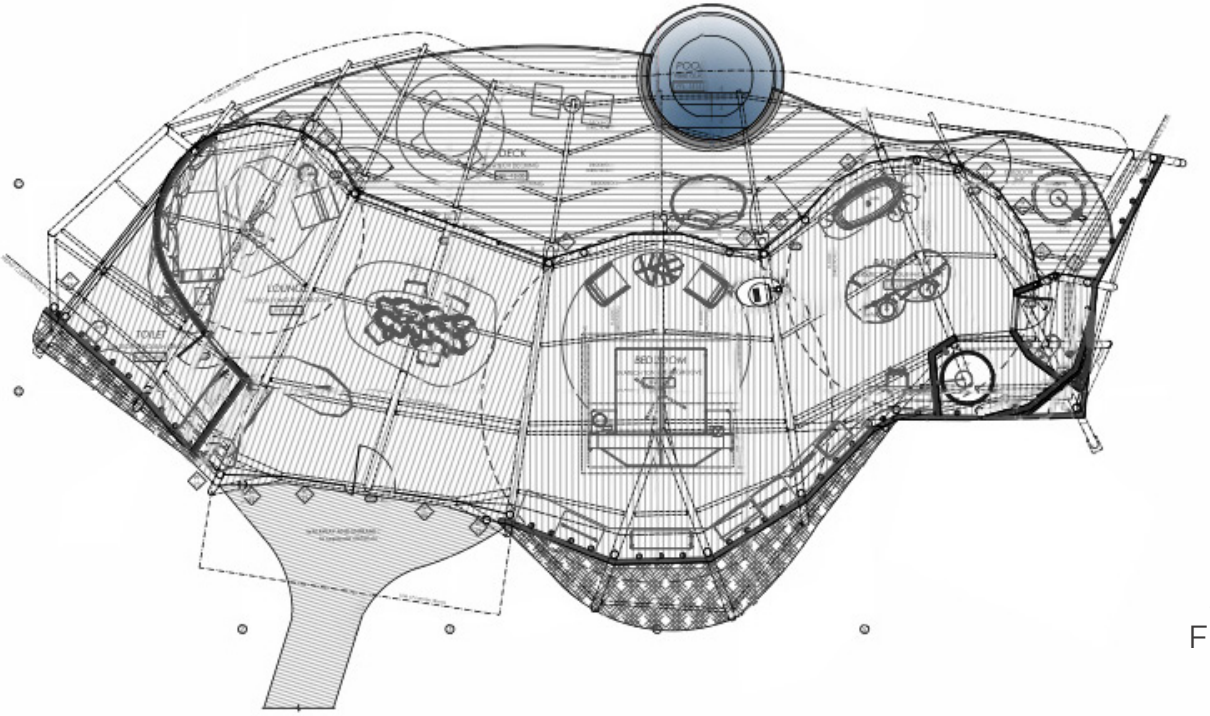

UNTAMED BEAUTY, UNRIVALLED COMFORT

The camp itself is a masterpiece of design - architecturally striking and beautifully crafted to reflect the spirit of the Delta, blending contemporary luxury with natural elegance at every turn. Every detail, from the bespoke furnishings to the open, light-filled spaces, has been thoughtfully considered to create an atmosphere of refined comfort. For those seeking complete seclusion and exclusivity, Jao's two ultra-luxurious villas are in a league of their own. Designed for families or small groups, each villa comes with a dedicated private butler, chef, guide, and vehicle, as well as its own expansive living areas, a plunge pool overlooking the floodplains, and a fire pit perfect for gathering under the stars.
